NOTICE.

The attention of the public is invited to the advertisement in details published in Mysore Gazette, dated 18th January 1917, calling for tenders for constructing Bathing Ghat and side revetment to the left bank of Cauvery at Anandeswara temple near T.-Narsipur.

Y. ASVATHANARAYANA RAO,
Executive Engineer.

Dated——January 1917.

Notice is hereby given that sealed tenders will be received at the office of the Assistant Engineer, Headquarter Range, Mysore, up to 5 P.M., on 15th February 1917, for improving the Staff Quarters at Mysore.

1. An approximate estimate of quantities is given below. The work should be completed in about three months after commencement.

2. The detailed estimates and specifications may be seen at the Office of the Assistant Engineer, Headquarter Range, Mysore, between the hours of 11 A.M. and 5 P.M.

3. Tenders should be submitted in sealed covers superscribed 'Tenders for improving the Staff Quarters' in the form noted below, which may be obtained from the Assistant Engineer. The tenders should be accompanied by a statement in the form given below, showing the rates at which the different items will be executed.

4. A deposit of Rs. 100 should be made with each tender, which will be retained as part security against fulfilment of contract in the case of the successful tenderer and which will be returned to non-successful tenderers.

5. The undersigned does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any tender or to assign any reason whatever for the rejection of any tender.

6. Within eight days of the acceptance of the tender, the successful competitor will be required to execute the usual contract bond; in default of which his tender will be considered cancelled, and his earnest money be forfeited.

7. The name of the successful competitor will be posted on the notice board in the Assistant Engineer's Office in due course. No enquiries regarding the acceptance or rejection of a tender will receive any reply.

8. On acceptance of one of the tenders, the earnest money on rejected tenders will be returned.
